Dear Student,

We welcome you to NICMAR University, Pune, for the Full Time Programme, commencing on Tuesday, 16th August, 2022.

NICMAR University, Pune is organising a one-week Orientation Programme. The week long programme is enriched with knowledge sharing guest lectures, alumni talks, peppered with doses of fun-filled activities and games.

You will go through an Orientation Programme, the schedule of which will be available on all prominent notice boards in the campus and hostel. Please locate the group to which your name has been assigned. During the days of the orientation, you will be required to remain in the assigned group.

During the Orientation Programme, you will be made familiar with the University, the University programmes, curriculum, code of conduct, the surroundings, and various activities in and around the campus. As the orientation programme begins at 9.00 a.m. sharp, you are required to be in the campus latest by 8.45 a.m.

During the Orientation Programme, we will also brief you about facilities and services available in the NICMAR University, Pune. The Hostel Warden will inform you about the necessary articles/belongings required to make your hostel stay comfortable.

Kindly ensure that you have adequate formal clothing. All students are expected to be dressed in formals while they are in the campus. (Male students must carry few ties and a pair of formal shoes with them. Female students must carry sarees, formal trousers and shirts, scarves and decent salwar kurtas for daily wear). There is no "uniform" prescribed for attending regular classes.

Important Note:
